Program Requirements and Restrictions

- NTU requires exchange students to enroll in at least 2 courses or 4 credits per semester. Students should also meet the requirements of their home universities.
- Generally, undergraduate students can take a maximum of 25 credits per semester and graduate students can take up to 20 credits per semester, unless otherwise specified by the academic department.
- For more information on restrictions set by each department, please visit: https://isss.ntu.edu.tw/exchange-visiting-students/overview/ Additionally, the following programs and courses are not open to exchange/visiting students:
  - Practicum courses offered by any department
  - Courses offered by the Center for Teacher Education and the School of Professional Education and Continuing Studies
  - Academic Programs (學分學程)
  - -Summer Session (暑修) and Summer College (夏季學院) courses
  - Department of Dentistry, International College, School of Political Science and Economics, D-School, Institute of Plant Biology and Center for General Education

Courses

- Course listings for the first and second semesters are published on the course website (https://course.ntu.edu.tw/en) in early August and January, respectively. Students should build preliminary schedules using past course offerings and update them once the latest list is available. Please direct any specific field or course inquiries to the relevant department or instructor.

Other

- For further information about the university-level exchange program, please visit our website at: https://isss.ntu.edu.tw/exchange-visiting-students/

Orientation Week

- Through our orientation activities, students can learn about university facilities and services while gaining valuable insights into student life at NTU.
- All exchange students are required to attend the orientation activities.

Free Chinese Language Courses

- Exchange students can take free General Chinese and Enhancing Chinese courses for NTU credit.

Support for Students

- Inform us during the nomination period if a student requires additional support or adjustments due to a disability.
- Each exchange student will be assigned a student volunteer to provide guidance and support.
