Both the undergraduate and graduate programmes at Sciences Po welcome exchange students.

- Undergraduate exchange: students having completed 4 or more semesters of undergraduate study.
- Graduate exchange: students with a Bachelor's degree, or 6 semesters or more of undergraduate study.

Academic Programme

Exchange students may register for between 5 ECTS credits (minimum) and 30 ECTS credits (maximum) per semester. Students can attempt up to 60 ECTS credits per academic year.

Undergraduate students

A Certificate of Studies in Social Sciences and Humanities is available for undergraduate exchange students. In addition to the certificate, students may select a regional specialization if they apply for a campus outside Paris. They may study the geographical minors:

- Asia-Pacific
- Mediterranean and Middle East
- European Union, Central and Eastern Europe

- North America

Campus choice

Applicants must select 2 choices:

- 2 campuses for undergraduate students
- 2 Master's programmes for graduate students

Graduate students

Exchange students in our graduate programmes must be attached to a specific Masters programme and are restricted to classes in that programme only. Not all graduate courses are open to exchange students, and some may impose academic or linguistic prerequisites.

In addition to the courses offered by the programme, the Common Academic Curriculum offers graduate students a variety of discipline-based and interdisciplinary courses rooted in Sciences Po's academic project. They expose students to fundamental concepts and knowledge from across the social sciences, in close connection with the research work of our permanent faculty members, so that our students can apprehend the key issues of contemporary societies. Exchange students are allowed to enroll in up to two Common Academic Curriculum courses per semester.

Academic Rules and Regulations

Students are invited to read the Academic Rules and Regulations and to familiarize themselves with Sciences Po's attendance policy (not more than 2 absences allowed per class).
