Important Course Enrollment Notes	Exchange students are not permitted to take courses virtually at YorkU from overseas. Exchange students should ensure return flights are arranged to accommodate the end of the examination period. Most courses require students to be present in Toronto for examinations. Exchange students will enroll into courses online. If courses are reserved or restricted, exchange students may seek permission from the course department to add the course. Students may be required to provide additional information proving they meet course pre-requisites. Permission to enroll may not be granted. Enrollment dates vary by program and level of study. The Global Learning Team will inform the enrollment dates to students after the admission process is complete.

STUDENT PROGRAMMING – York International Calendar / Volunteer

York International hosts many events that create an engaging environment and where exchange students can connect with other YorkU students. https://yorkinternational.yorku.ca/calendar/ Exchange students can also volunteer for the Global Learning Team where they have a chance to promote their home university and country - get in touch with us at exchange@yorku.ca

IMMIGRATION & PROVINCIAL ATTESTATION LETTERS

Exchange students are responsible for understanding the immigration regulations and timelines to obtain the necessary documents for their travel to Canada. Students can contact the Canadian consular office or speak with one of the York registered immigration advisors for more information. Students on exchange to York University no longer require a Provincial Attestation Letter (PAL). Questions? Get in touch with an immigration advisor - iadvisor@yorku.ca

HOUSING

On campus housing for exchange students is limited and not guaranteed. The application form will be provided to students with the incoming exchange application. Exchange students must wait until official admission to York University to apply for housing. To view on campus housing options, please visit: https://www.yorku.ca/housing/
If an exchange student successfully applies for on-campus housing, they will be required to pay a housing deposit fee. For more information, please contact Housing Services at undergradres@yorku.ca

SCHOLARSHIPS

York University partners with Global Affairs Canada and Mitacs to offer scholarships to incoming exchange or visiting research trainees. Please review our Funding for Incoming Global Learning for more information about eligibility deadlines, and award amounts: https://www.yorku.ca/international/global-learning/global-learning-funding/incoming-global-learning-funding/

UHIP

Students are automatically enrolled in the University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP). UHIP coverage and charges are mandatory for international and exchange students, even if they have purchased a plan from their home country.
